~ Luther Warren ~

After watching his older brother learn the violin, Luther decided at the age of six that he must play as well. Once Luther had his own instrument and lessons, he excelled, quickly moving through the early Suzuki books with his first teacher Sharon Osterhouse.

Luther joined the Minnesota Youth Symphonies in the fourth grade, and over the next five years moved up to the top orchestra, in which he currently plays. Luther, now 16 years old, has been taking lessons with Cheryl Stewart since 2009. Over the past few years, Luther has also been actively participating in various music competitions throughout the Twin Cities.

Luther is home-schooled.
